

EQUITY SPARKS

OEA Members of Color & Active Equity Champions

Spend time with colleagues engaged in equity affinity groups to build community, strengthen skills, explore equity hot-topics, network and have fun!

WHY SHOULD I ATTEND?

Recruiting and retaining educators of color and educators who are equity champions is a critical need in every Oregon classroom.

DETAILS

October 25-27, 2019 (Friday - Sunday)
Inn at Spanish Head
4009 SW Highway 101 • Lincoln City, OR 97637

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

After you submit your registration online, a survey will be emailed to you with possible "hot topics" for discussion. Based on survey responses, one of these topics will be the focus for this event:

1. Culturally Proficient Teaching
2. Responding to Bias/Microaggression
3. Ethnic Studies Standards
4. Recruiting and Retaining Educators of Color

- 30 Participant cap (first-come/first-serve)
- Direct-bill lodging will be set up for you with double occupancy.
- If you do not have a roommate, one will be assigned of the same gender
- Meals will be provided (reimbursement will not be provided for meals)

REGISTER TODAY!

www.oregoned.org/events/equity-sparks-training

Questions? Contact Penny Hildreth in OEA's Center for Great Public Schools:
penny.hildreth@oregoned.org // 503.495.2135