

Becoming an Anti-Racist Educator

Collaborating Across
Difference for Lasting Change

OEA's Racial Equity Symposium

A Day of Virtual Learning and Growth with Oregon's Center for Educational Equity

Saturday, Feb. 13, 2021 // 9:45 a.m. - 3 p.m.

To counter racism, educators need courage and commitment to be active Anti-Racists. Urgent, necessary change will not be achieved if people are merely not Racist. Change will not happen if we refuse to confront the status quo and collaborate both within and across differences. What does it mean to be a White Dominant Culture Anti-Racist? How do People of Color and White People collaborate to bring about effective, lasting change? Learn roles and responsibilities of Anti-Racism work and cross-racial collaboration strategies.
