Barb Drennan Promising Practices Grants

OEA Member Application (2017-2018)

The Barb Drennan Promising Practices Grants provide an opportunity for UniServ Councils to support student learning and the professional development of OEA members in their local associations.

ELIGIBILITY Active OEA members are eligible to apply.

DEADLINES & INSTRUCTIONS

- The Barb Drennan Promising Practices Grants program runs from September 30 – April 30 of each academic year.
- Each UniServ Council sets the grant submission deadline for its local association members. Contact your local UniServ office to confirm this date. Check the OEA office directory for contact information at <http://www.oregoned.org/our-association/contact-us/locations>
- Please complete and print the interactive grant application form on the OEA website at www.oregoned.org/ppgmemberapp2017. This link also provides the option to download the form onto your own computer.
- Submit grant application to your local UniServ office for evaluation by the Council. They will notify grant winners and issue award checks.

TERMS OF AWARD

If this grant is awarded, I agree to use the funds during this school year as indicated in this application and submit a short summary of the project including at least one photo of the project in action by June 30, 2018. The summary should discuss the impact on teaching and learning with your students and be sent to Penny Hildreth at penny.hildreth@oregoned.org in the OEA Center for Great Public Schools. I further agree that the application materials and grant summary can be used by OEA for public purposes to help other educators. I understand that application materials become the property of OEA and will not be returned. If the grant is awarded, I agree to share my project with OEA members in a variety of ways. Possible sharing opportunities include presentations at local Association meetings, writing an article for the local newsletter or Today's OEA magazine, inclusion on the OEA website or participating in OEA conferences.

I agree with the terms of this grant.
