If you haven’t had a chance to register/create a password to access that website, please click here for links and instructions.

If you have difficulty accessing the www.oeara.org website, please contact our OEA RA Support Team here and they will be able to assist you.

When joining Hearings, please remember to rename yourself to show your first and last names as well as your local association. To rename yourself, click on the “participants” button at the top/bottom of your Zoom screen, hover your mouse over your name, look for “more” or three dots (...), and select “rename.” Once you have entered your first, last and local association, click “ok” and you’ll be all set.
For each hearing, there is high-quality live closed captioning available should you desire to use it. To access the live closed captioning for any of today’s hearings please use the links below. Please note, the links below will only open the rolling transcript for the live closed captioning. You will still need to log into the hearing itself using the zoom link on the www.oeara.org website. Remember to contact our OEA RA Support Team here and they will be able to assist you.
